cursed and threatened the recalcitrant element of the workers, calling them bums, saboteurs, enemies of the people, etc. At the most important coal mines the execution of the 1952 plan resulted in approximately 85% production, if one wants to believe the official data published in the Communist press. In spite of severe recriminations a strong whispering campaign has become rempant all over the country and among every segment of the population. I may well say that hatred towards the oppressor and hatred towards his Polish agents increased considerably during the past year 1953 Hypocrisy and lies pervade everything. Ones hides his feelings and waits for the day of liber

25X1

25X1

CLASSIFICATION CISTRIBUTION

"Slutba Folsoc" (Service to Feland) is the organization which may be considered as the instrument providing pre-military training. Young men 17 years old are drafted for a period of three to six month to work on public works projects of all types. Young men attending school perform this service in two stages. These young men wermilitary uniforms and receive military training for two or three hours a day. The "League of Soldiers Friends" (LEZ) which has been carrying on extensive propagada for the past two years, enjoys no popularity whatever. Only those who are really forced to do so join it. In general and this must be said with special emphasis; it is true that the Polish people's attitude towards their coldiers does not look some tragic aspects. In one aspect the people feel these soldiers are all good folish boys who should be met with sympthy and understanding but on the other hand the entire Polish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter way be municined here. The yearly contingent of recruite is approximately three times us large as the yearly quota provided for new enlistees, Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, was are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service, was are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service, was resturned home and classed supernumeraries, divorce certificates, exc. Trey were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnaire, Subsequently regretion cards were issued to them prospetly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of parents received in exchange for these registration cards mer identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being recipies not attach were also received in exchange for these registrations and mer identity certificates. These certificates or that these documents after all be graded by being divided into different categories and that scener or later their holders	e drafted l types. g men wear ay. The opaganda really phasis, ot lack good Folish	ne organization which may be considining. Young men 17 years old are rk on public works projects of all service in two stages. These young maining for two or three hours a da has been carrying on extensive proity whatever. Only those who are this must be said with special empude towards their soldiers does no scople feel these coldiers are all	ce" (Service to Poland) is the providing pre-military trasof three to six months to wo conding school perform this some and receive military tradiciers Friends" (LP2) which two years, enjoys no popular so join it. In general and at the Polish people's attit	for a period of t Young men attendi military uniforms "League of Soldie for the past two	f
"Sluzba Folses" (Service to Poland) is the organization which may be considered as the instrument providing pre-military training. Young men 17 years old are drafted for a period of three to six months to work on public works projects of all types. Young men attending school perform this service in two stages. These young men wear military uniforms and receive military training for two or three hours a day. The "league of Soldiers Friends" (LEZ) which has been carrying on extensive propaganda for the past two years, enjoys no popularity whatever. Only those who are really forced to do so join it. In general and this must be said with special emphasis, it is true that the Polich people's attitude towards that soldiers are all good Folish stops tragic aspects. In one aspect the people feel these soldiers are all good Folish boys who should be met with sympathy and understanding but on the other hand the entire Folish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times as large as the yearly quota provided for new enlistees. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, was are returned home and classed supernuseraries. Selected for military service, was are returned home and classed supernuseraries. Selected for military service are minly the sons of workers and poor peasants, members of the ZMF, sons of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, discrete certificates, etc. They were also required to full out a lengthy questionmairs. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the part 12 souths a fairly large number of parsons received in exchange for these segistration cards may identify certificates. These certificates on the submit community special offices have a certificate of the submit of the submit of t	e drafted l types. g men wear ay. The opaganda really phasis, ot lack good Folish	ne organization which may be considining. Young men 17 years old are rk on public works projects of all service in two stages. These young maining for two or three hours a da has been carrying on extensive proity whatever. Only those who are this must be said with special empude towards their soldiers does no scople feel these coldiers are all	of three to six months to wo cending school perform this scorms and receive military troldiers Friends" (LP2) which two years, enjoys no popular so join it. In general and the Polish people's attit	for a period of t Young men attendi military uniforms "League of Soldie for the past two	1
for a period of three to six months to work on public works projects of all types. Young men attending school perform this service in two stages. These young men wear military uniforms and receive military training for two or three hours a day. The "League of Soldiers Friends" (LFZ) which has been carrying on extensive propagands for the past two years, enjoys no popularity whatever. Only those who are really forced to do so join it. In general and this must be said with special emphasis, it is true that the Foliah people's attitude towards their soldiers does not lack some tragic aspects. In one aspect the people feel these soldiers are all good Folish boys who should be met with sympathy and understanding but on the other hand the entire Folish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times as large as the yearly quota provided for mes enlistess. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, two are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service are minly the some of workers and poor peasants, numbers of the ZMP, some of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, incore certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnairs. Subsequently registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates ontain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the suployer's authentication but the average people feer that these documents, according to their runbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders	e drafted l types. g men wear ay. The opaganda really phasis, ot lack good Folish	cinking. Toung men 17 years old are ork on public works projects of all service in two stages. These young aining for two or three hours a da has been carrying on extensive protity whatever. Only those who are this must be said with special empande towards their soldiers does no scople feel these coldiers care all	of three to six months to wo cending school perform this scorms and receive military troldiers Friends" (LP2) which two years, enjoys no popular so join it. In general and the Polish people's attit	for a period of t Young men attendi military uniforms "League of Soldie for the past two	1
for a period of three to six months to work on public works projects of all types. Young men attending school perform this service in two stages. These young men wear military uniforms and receive military training for two or three hours a day. The "League of Soldiers Friends" (LFZ) which has been carrying on extensive propagands for the past two years, enjoys no popularity whatever. Only those who are really forced to do so join it. In general and this must be said with special emphasis, it is true that the Foliah people's attitude towards their soldiers does not lack some tragic aspects. In one aspect the people feel these soldiers are all good Folish boys who should be met with sympathy and understanding but on the other hand the entire Folish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times as large as the yearly quota provided for mes enlistess. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, two are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service are minly the some of workers and poor peasants, numbers of the ZMP, some of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, incore certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnairs. Subsequently registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates ontain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the suployer's authentication but the average people feer that these documents, according to their runbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders	e drafted l types. g men wear ay. The opaganda really phasis, ot lack good Folish	cinking. Toung men 17 years old are ork on public works projects of all service in two stages. These young aining for two or three hours a da has been carrying on extensive protity whatever. Only those who are this must be said with special empande towards their soldiers does no scople feel these coldiers care all	of three to six months to wo cending school perform this scorms and receive military troldiers Friends" (LP2) which two years, enjoys no popular so join it. In general and the Polish people's attit	for a period of t Young men attendi military uniforms "League of Soldie for the past two	1
for a period of three to six months to work on public works projects of all types. Young men attending school perform this service in two stages. These young men wear military uniforms and receive military training for two or three hours a day. The "League of Soldiers Friends" (LFZ) which has been carrying on extensive propagands for the past two years, enjoys no popularity whatever. Only those who are really forced to do so join it. In general and this must be said with special emphasis, it is true that the Foliah people's attitude towards their soldiers does not lack some tragic aspects. In one aspect the people feel these soldiers are all good Folish boys who should be met with sympathy and understanding but on the other hand the entire Folish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times as large as the yearly quota provided for mes enlistess. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, two are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service are minly the some of workers and poor peasants, numbers of the ZMP, some of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, incore certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnairs. Subsequently registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates ontain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the suployer's authentication but the average people feer that these documents, according to their runbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders	e drafted l types. g men wear ay. The opaganda really phasis, ot lack good Folish	cinking. Toung men 17 years old are ork on public works projects of all service in two stages. These young aining for two or three hours a da has been carrying on extensive protity whatever. Only those who are this must be said with special empande towards their soldiers does no scople feel these coldiers care all	of three to six months to wo cending school perform this scorms and receive military troldiers Friends" (LP2) which two years, enjoys no popular so join it. In general and the Polish people's attit	for a period of t Young men attendi military uniforms "League of Soldie for the past two	1
for a period of three to six months to work on public works projects of all types. Young men attending school perform this service in two stages. These young men wear military uniforms and receive military training for two or three hours a day. The "League of Soldiers Friends" (LFZ) which has been carrying on extensive propagands for the past two years, enjoys no popularity whatever. Only those who are really forced to do so join it. In general and this must be said with special emphasis, it is true that the Foliah people's attitude towards their soldiers does not lack some tragic aspects. In one aspect the people feel these soldiers are all good Folish boys who should be met with sympathy and understanding but on the other hand the entire Folish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times as large as the yearly quota provided for mes enlistess. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, two are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service are minly the some of workers and poor peasants, numbers of the ZMP, some of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, incore certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnairs. Subsequently registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates ontain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the suployer's authentication but the average people feer that these documents, according to their runbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders	e drafted l types. g men wear ay. The opaganda really phasis, ot lack good Folish	cinking. Toung men 17 years old are ork on public works projects of all service in two stages. These young aining for two or three hours a da has been carrying on extensive protity whatever. Only those who are this must be said with special empande towards their soldiers does no scople feel these coldiers care all	of three to six months to wo cending school perform this scorms and receive military troldiers Friends" (LP2) which two years, enjoys no popular so join it. In general and the Polish people's attit	for a period of t Young men attendi military uniforms "League of Soldie for the past two	1
for a period of three to six months to work on public works projects of all types. Young men attending school perform this service in two stages. These young men wear military uniforms and receive military training for two or three hours a day. The "League of Soldiers Friends" (LFZ) which has been carrying on extensive propagands for the past two years, enjoys no popularity whatever. Only those who are really forced to do so join it. In general and this must be said with special emphasis, it is true that the Foliah people's attitude towards their soldiers does not lack some tragic aspects. In one aspect the people feel these soldiers are all good Folish boys who should be met with sympathy and understanding but on the other hand the entire Folish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times as large as the yearly quota provided for mes enlistess. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, two are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service are minly the some of workers and poor peasants, numbers of the ZMP, some of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, incore certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnairs. Subsequently registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates ontain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the suployer's authentication but the average people feer that these documents, according to their runbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders	e drafted l types. g men wear ay. The opaganda really phasis, ot lack good Folish	cinking. Toung men 17 years old are ork on public works projects of all service in two stages. These young aining for two or three hours a da has been carrying on extensive protity whatever. Only those who are this must be said with special empande towards their soldiers does no scople feel these coldiers care all	of three to six months to wo cending school perform this scorms and receive military troldiers Friends" (LP2) which two years, enjoys no popular so join it. In general and the Polish people's attit	for a period of t Young men attendi military uniforms "League of Soldie for the past two	1
for a period of three to six months to work on public works projects of all types. Young men attending school perform this service in two stages. These young men wear military uniforms and receive military training for two or three hours a day. The "League of Soldiers Friends" (LFZ) which has been carrying on extensive propagands for the past two years, enjoys no popularity whatever. Only those who are really forced to do so join it. In general and this must be said with special emphasis, it is true that the Foliah people's attitude towards their soldiers does not lack some tragic aspects. In one aspect the people feel these soldiers are all good Folish boys who should be met with sympathy and understanding but on the other hand the entire Folish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times as large as the yearly quota provided for mes enlistess. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, two are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service are minly the some of workers and poor peasants, numbers of the ZMP, some of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, incore certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnairs. Subsequently registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates ontain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the suployer's authentication but the average people feer that these documents, according to their runbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders	e drafted l types. g men wear ay. The opaganda really phasis, ot lack good Folish	cinking. Toung men 17 years old are ork on public works projects of all service in two stages. These young aining for two or three hours a da has been carrying on extensive protity whatever. Only those who are this must be said with special empande towards their soldiers does no scople feel these coldiers care all	of three to six months to wo cending school perform this scorms and receive military troldiers Friends" (LP2) which two years, enjoys no popular so join it. In general and the Polish people's attit	for a period of t Young men attendi military uniforms "League of Soldie for the past two	1
for a period of three to six months to work on public works projects of all types. Young men attending school perform this service in two stages. These young men wear military uniforms and receive military training for two or three hours a day. The "League of Soldiers Friends" (LFZ) which has been carrying on extensive propagands for the past two years, enjoys no popularity whatever. Only those who are really forced to do so join it. In general and this must be said with special emphasis, it is true that the Foliah people's attitude towards their soldiers does not lack some tragic aspects. In one aspect the people feel these soldiers are all good Folish boys who should be met with sympathy and understanding but on the other hand the entire Folish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times as large as the yearly quota provided for mes enlistess. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, two are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service are minly the some of workers and poor peasants, numbers of the ZMP, some of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, incore certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnairs. Subsequently registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates ontain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the suployer's authentication but the average people feer that these documents, according to their runbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders	e drafted l types. g men wear ay. The opaganda really phasis, ot lack good Folish	cinking. Toung men 17 years old are ork on public works projects of all service in two stages. These young aining for two or three hours a da has been carrying on extensive protity whatever. Only those who are this must be said with special empande towards their soldiers does no scople feel these coldiers care all	of three to six months to wo cending school perform this scorms and receive military troldiers Friends" (LP2) which two years, enjoys no popular so join it. In general and the Polish people's attit	for a period of t Young men attendi military uniforms "League of Soldie for the past two	1
for a period of three to six months to work on public works projects of all types. Young men attending school perform this service in two stages. These young men wear military uniforms and receive military training for two or three hours a day. The "League of Soldiers Friends" (LFZ) which has been carrying on extensive propagands for the past two years, enjoys no popularity whatever. Only those who are really forced to do so join it. In general and this must be said with special emphasis, it is true that the Foliah people's attitude towards their soldiers does not lack some tragic aspects. In one aspect the people feel these soldiers are all good Folish boys who should be met with sympathy and understanding but on the other hand the entire Folish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times as large as the yearly quota provided for mes enlistess. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, two are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service are minly the some of workers and poor peasants, numbers of the ZMP, some of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, incore certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnairs. Subsequently registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates ontain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the suployer's authentication but the average people feer that these documents, according to their runbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders	e drafted l types. g men wear ay. The opaganda really phasis, ot lack good Folish	cinking. Toung men 17 years old are ork on public works projects of all service in two stages. These young aining for two or three hours a da has been carrying on extensive protity whatever. Only those who are this must be said with special empande towards their soldiers does no scople feel these coldiers care all	of three to six months to wo cending school perform this scorms and receive military troldiers Friends" (LP2) which two years, enjoys no popular so join it. In general and the Polish people's attit	for a period of t Young men attendi military uniforms "League of Soldie for the past two	1
Young men attending school perform this service in two stages. These young men wear military uniforms and receive military training for two or three hours a day. The "League of Soldiers Friends" (LFZ) which has been carrying on extensive propaganda for the past two years, enjoys no popularity whatever. Only those who are really forced to do so join it. In general and this must be said with special emphasis, it is true that the Polish people's attitude towards their soldiers does not lack some tragic aspects. In one aspect the people feel these soldiers are all good Polish boys who should be met with sympathy and understanding but on the other hand the entire Polish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times us large as the yearly quota provided for new enlistees. Of three soldiers found slighble for military service, two are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service, are mainly the sons of workers and poor peasants, numbers of the ZMP, sons of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, divorce certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionmairs. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their rumbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that scener or later their holders will find their fraedom of	l types. g men wear ay. The opaganda really phasis, ot lack good Polish	erk on public works projects of all ervice in two stages. These young aining for two or three hours a da has been carrying on extensive pro- ity whatever. Only those who are this must be said with special emp unde towards their soldiers does no scople feel these coldiers are all	conding school perform this schooling school perform this school perform this school perform this school perform this school perform the school perform the performance of the performan	Young men attendi military uniforms "League of Soldie for the past two military uniforms and receive military training for two or three hours a day. The "League of Soldiers Friends" (LE2) which has been carrying on extensive propaganda for the past two years, enjoys no popularity whatever. Only those who ary really forced to do so join it. In general and this must be said with special emphasis, it is true that the Polish people's attitude towards their soldiers does not lack some tragic aspects. In one aspect the people feel these soldiers are all good Polish boys who should be met with sympathy and understanding but on the other hand the entire Polish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times as large as the yearly quota provided for new enlistees. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, two are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service are mainly the sons of workers and poor peasants, numbers of the ZMF, sons of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this cocasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, error manulation certificates, exc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionmaire. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their rumbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that scener or later their holders will find their fraedom of travel within the centry manular collega	g men wear ay. The opaganda really phasis, ot lack good Polish	ervice in two stages. These young aining for two or three hours a da has been carrying on extensive proity whatever. Only those who are this must be said with special empude towards their soldiers does no scople feel these coldiers are all	Forms and receive military trolling stricts from this solutions friends (LPZ) which two years, enjoys no popular so join it. In general and the Polish people's attit	military uniforms "League of Soldie for the past two	• for the past two years, enjoys no popularity whatever. Only those who are really forced to do so join it. In general and this must be said with special emphasis; it is true that the Polish people's attitude towards their soldiers does not lack some tragic aspects. In one aspect the people feel these soldiers are all good Polish boys who should be met with sympathy and understanding but on the other hand the entire Folish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times as large as the yearly quota provided for new emistees. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, was are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service are mainly the sons of workers and poor peasants, members of the ZMP, sons of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, amariage certificates, divorce certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionmairs. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their rumbers, will be greated by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders will find their fraedom of travel within the country more or later their holders will find their fraedom of travel within the country more or later their frequently called "passports for the in	opaganda really phasis, ot lack good Polish	nas been carrying on extensive pro- ity whatever. Only those who ara- this must be said with special emp- ude towards their soldiers does no scople feel these soldiers care all	two years, enjoys no popular so join it. In general and at the Polish people's attit	for the past two	_ forced to do so join it. In general and this must be said with special emphasis, it is true that the Polish people's attitude towards their soldiers does not lack some tragic aspects. In one aspect the people feel these soldiers are all good Polish boys who should be met with sympathy and understanding but on the other hand the entire Polish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times a large as the yearly quota provided for new enlistees. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, are mainly the sons of workers and poor peasants, members of the ZMP, sons of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, divorce certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionmairs. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new industry certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the suployer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their numbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that some or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or later their holders. LIBRARY SUBLECT & AREA CODES	really phasis, ot lack good Folish	this must be said with special emputed towards their soldiers does no sould feel these soldiers does no	so join it. In general and at the Polish people's attit	min band and some tragic aspects. In one aspect the people feel these soldiers are all good folish boys who should be met with sympathy and understanding but on the other hand the entire Folish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times as large as the yearly quota provided for new enlistees. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, two are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service are mainly the sons of workers and poor peasants, members of the ZMF, sons of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this cocasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, divorce certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionmaire. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their numbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom to the passports for the interio	ot lack good Polish	and towards their soldiers does no	and rotten beoble.g Willia		f
Folish army is an army serving Soviet interests and is, therefore, looked upon with indifference and even contempt. Another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times as large as the yearly quota provided for new enlistees. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, two are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service are mainly the sons of workers and poor peasants, members of the ZMP, sons of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, divorce certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questiomaire. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their numbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders will find their fraedom of travel within the country more or later their holders will find their fraedom of travel within the country more or later their holders will find their fraedom of travel within the country more or later their holders will find their fraedom of travel within the country more or later their holders will find their fraedom of travel within the country more or later their holders will find their fraedom of travel within the country more or later their frequently called passports for the interior, as they are called also in the USER.	والمائد الأساف	understanding but an it	Spects. In one senont At-	armo other o	- indifference and even contempt, another matter may be mentioned here. The yearly contingent of recruits is approximately three times as large as the yearly quota provided for new enlistees. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, two are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service are mainly the sons of workers and poor peasants, members of the ZMP, sons of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, divorce certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questiomairs. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their numbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sconer or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or lass curtailed. However. Who issue of the new identity Certificates was In every town and community special offices were set up to manuse this matter. The correct man of these documents is "Dowed Coobisty", which means personal certificates. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USER.		www.o.comuling but on the other han	TA OR WELL STATE SAMPLETON SUG		- provided for new enlistees. Of three soldiers found eligible for military service, two are returned home and classed supernumeraries. Selected for military service are mainly the sons of workers and poor peasants, members of the ZMP, sons of Communist Party members. etc. Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit hirth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, divorce certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnaire. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their rumbers, will be graided by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or lass curtailed. Not completed In swery town and community special offices were set up to namice this mitter. The correct man of these documents is "Dowod Sobiety", which means personal certificates. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "pasports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES		ATBITE 69/ 10 - +hamafama 1	AT ATTA DOLITHE DOLINE INC
Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, divorce certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnaire. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their numbers, will be graided by being divided into different categories and that scener or later their holders will find their fraedom of travel within the country more or later their holders will find their fraedom of travel within the country more or later unders. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES		three times of lemma on the	A TOTAL CO. 15 SDOPONIMATALY	AAMATHEANA OT LAG	-
Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, divorce certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionmairs. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their numbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that somer or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom of travel within the country more or later their freedom	•	Minra t'onind aliathle ce e elitere.	THE LOUDE OF THE END	Language of a man	-
Two years ago everybody had to submit requests in order to obtain a certificate of identity. On this occasion people were required also to submit birth certificates, employment certificates, marriage certificates, divorce certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnairs. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their numbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that soomer or later their holders will find their fraction of travel within the country more or lass curtailed. However, the issue of the new identity Certificates was In every town and community special offices were set up to names this matter. The correct mans of these documents is "Dowed Osobisty", which means personal certificate. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES	of Communist	essents, members of the ZMP, sons	A SOUTH OF ACALERIES BUILDINGS DE		_ employment certificates, marriage certificates, divorce certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnaire. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their numbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or lass curtailed were set up to name the travel within the country more or lass curtailed osobisty", which means personal certificate. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES		 	. 650.	rarty members. et employment certificates, marriage certificates, divorce certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnaire. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their numbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or lass curtailed were set up to name the travel within the country more or lass curtailed osobisty", which means personal certificate. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES employment certificates, marriage certificates, divorce certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnaire. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their numbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or lass curtailed were set up to name the travel within the country more or lass curtailed osobisty", which means personal certificate. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES employment certificates, marriage certificates, divorce certificates, etc. They were also required to fill out a lengthy questionnaire. Subsequently registration cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their numbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or lass curtailed were set up to name the travel within the country more or lass curtailed osobisty", which means personal certificate. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES		Bests in order to ships a security	everybody had to submit rem	Two years ago ever	Tr cards were issued to them promptly. For the past 12 months a fairly large number of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their numbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that scener or later their holders will find their fraction of travel within the country more or lass curtailed were set up to name this matter. The correct man of these documents is "Dowed Osobisty", which means personal certificates. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES		POUT - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 -	THAT VOUSSIUM DECODES THE PA of persons received in exchange for these registration cards new identity certificates. These certificates contain about 20 pages. For the time being people do not attach too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their numbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sconer or later their holders will find their fraction of travel within the country more or lass curtailed were set up to name the travel within the country more or lass curtailed sobisty", which means personal certificate. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES		7100710ED6100 France		The second secon too much importance to these identity certificates which, after all, do not reveal particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their numbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sconer or later their holders will find their fraedom of travel within the country more or lass courtailed more set up to name the satter. The correct man of these documents is "Dowed Osobisty", which means personal certificate. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES	number	the past 12 months a fairly large r	Deived in exchange for these	of persons receive	01 particular information except personal data and the employer's authentication but the average people fear that these documents, according to their numbers, will be graded by being divided into different categories and that sooner or later their holders will find their freedom of travel within the country more or less curtailed. However, the issue of the new Identity Certificates was not completed a later their set up to name the set up to name of these documents is "Dowed Osobisty", which means personal certificate. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES mot completed were set up to name this matter. The correct man of these documents is "Dowed Osobisty", which means personal certificate. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES	reveal	and the major arter all, do not	Cormation except personal date	particular informa	₽€ holders will find their fraedom of travel within the country more or less curtailed not completed were set up to namule this matter. The correct man of these documents is "Dowed Osobisty", which means personal certificate. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES not completed In every town and community perial offices In every town and community special offices were set up to namus this matter. The correct mans of these documents is "Dowod Osobisty", which means personal certificate. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES	their privation	within the country more or lass on	and their fraction of travel	holders will find	ho were set up to namuse this matter. The correct mans of these documents is "Dowod Osobisty", which means personal certificate. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES were set up to namuse this matter. The correct mans of these documents is "Dowod Osobisty", which means personal certificate. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES			Water trans
Osobisty", which means personal certificate. In general terms, however, they are frequently called "passports for the interior", as they are called also in the USSR. LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA COPES		IN AVERTY COMP. And Assessed Assessed
LIBRARY SUBJECT & AREA CODES	M		INMENTED TO BE TO THE SE	Osobisty", which w	08
LIBRART BUBLIC! & AREA COURS	by are the USSR.	197". AS they are called also in t	besshores for MM TWASL	frequently called	fr
		MCI M AREA COURS	CIDENTI BOB
·
4/735-1 591		524	4/735-1
173-711 554 107-72 554 107-71 554		727 734	107.72
107.71 5 5 4 107.75 5 5 4
		774 554

Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2011/07/27 : CIA-RDP80-00809A000600050039-4

SECRET

25X1